Subject - Filling up the vacancy in Devarhalli Town Municipal Council
Forwards proposals for the -

Sir,

I have the honor to state that a casual vacancy arose in the Devanhally Municipal Council due to the resignation on 24-3-42 tendered by Mr D S Nagaraja Rao, B Sc , an elected Councillor from the I Division of the said Town The Amildar President took necessary action to hold the bye-election as per enclosed calendar of events It has been reported that no candidature applications were received within the prescribed date Hence no election was held

Some applications praying for nomination were received in the Municipal Office Since the constituency failed to elect a member, the Amildar President is instructed to submit nomination proposals to fill up the vacancy under section 9(3) of the Town Municipalities Act of 1933 He recommends that the marginally noted gentleman may be nominated to the Municipal Council The Sub Division Officer, Nodballapur, supports the recommendation of the Amildar President of the Municipality

In these circumstances I recommend that Mr B Ranga Rao may be nominated as a member of Devarhally Town Municipal Council for the remaining term under section 9(3) of the Town Municipalities Act of 1933 The connected records accompany for favour of reference and return

I have the honour to be.
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,
